

Voice and Flute Lessons

From the studio of

Mrs. Beth Barnard

Information regarding voice and flute lessons:

- Individual lessons are 30 minutes each during the school day.
- Each student gives a semester commitment.
- There is a studio recital at the end of each semester, and each student performs songs from memory.
- Each student commits to practicing 20-30 minutes each weekday.
- Vocal and flute repertoire is a mix of classical, sacred and art songs.

Tuition & Enrollment

Lessons are open to all students in grades 1-12. Based on 30 weeks of lessons, the fee is $65 per month, and payment for lessons is through the school office.

Information about the teacher:

Beth Barnard has been teaching voice and flute lessons for 17 years, and enjoys working with children, teenagers and adults. She is known for her lyric soprano voice and has sung opera, oratorio, musical and sacred music across America and Europe. She is best known for her sacred recording, "Joy Overflowing," which is a collection of sacred songs of hope and encouragement.
